Addendum

1. The Association of Professional Compliance Consultants ("the APCC") is a company limited by guarantee. Membership of the APCC is open to any firm (which may include limited companies, partnerships and sole traders) which provides compliance consultancy services to organisations regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and/or Prudential Regulation Authority and either has, or intends to have, more than one client at a time.

A Compliance Consultant is defined as an employee or contractor whose services are charged to your clients, either directly or indirectly for the provision of compliance support or consulting.

2. In applying for membership a firm or organisation agrees to abide by the following as adopted by the APCC (and available at www.apcc.org.uk/):

(a) the Memorandum and Articles of Association

(b) the Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct

(c) the Grievance Procedure

(d) the Professional Standards of the Association as adopted from time to time

In order to comply with the APCC Professional Standards, we would specifically expect a firm to have in place the following:

(a) skills and experience matrix (or equivalent document) for both in-house and external consultants

(b) policies and procedures including, but not limited to, data security, business continuity, complaints handling, recruitment and development of consultants, market abuse policy (where the firm deals with clients who deal in market securities) and information security

(c) terms of engagement for all clients

(d) robust client administration procedures

(e) procedures for dealing with failing clients
